

“He Thinks Of You” by Kirk Hunt

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

Jeremiah 29:11 KJV
(Please read Jeremiah 29:1-7)

The leadership of Judah and Jerusalem trudged along in the chains of their Babylonian captors. The march to the capitol of Babylon had only just started. Behind them, Jerusalem still burned. Before them, Judah's towns and farms lay in smoking ruins.

At the first rest stop, a whisper ran like wildfire among the captives. “Jeremiah has a prophesy for God's People.” With desperate attention, they listened to every word of the prophet they previously persecuted.

Despite the justice and judgment He had allowed to come against them, God's People were never out of His eye or heart. His mercy had protected them from paying the full price of their sins. Already, plans were in motion to return Judah and Israel to Canaan and self-rule. Even those who would not live to return, could live out their lives in peace and prosperity.

Consider the plan God has for your life. No matter what has happened before, He intends to bless you, yours and others through your life. You have never been out of His eye or heart.

His mercy continues to shield you. His grace advances you. His peace blesses you.

Wherever you are, good times or bad, God has enacted His Plan for you. Choose to see the end He wants for you. Deliberately live the life God intends for you.

Think: God has plans for me.

Pray: “Lord, help me to see and follow Your plan for me.”
