America: The House of Long Shadows

This has been the Generations of Americans who gave away America, forsook the Lord God, and sold themselves into bondage because of their sins! In the House of Long Shadows we find an epitaph on America.

In the House of Long Shadows, we find an America whose house is filled with sin and rebellion. This is a House with a vibrant and chilling tale of beginning but today a house that is divided and a people whose long shadows cast darkness over the land. It is a time of reflection, repentance, and of hope. Here we want to believe that somehow, someday, a people will find the True light!

Will this be the final word one day of a great erstwhile nation?

America: The House of Long Shadows

Job 10:20-22

(20) Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

(21) Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

(22) A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

This is the generation of Americans who literally gave away America. Under the leadership of politicians and pundits, America opened up its borders, changed their laws, and brought in thousands of foreigners. The majority of which were young Muslim men who sought to take over America for Allah. The generations of Americans were in rebellion against the Lord, were lawless in their hearts, and did abominations before the Lord and would not repent. The justice that came took time and although there were those there who fought to stop the flood, the sins in the heart of men and women were the reason this occurred. For Americans had sold themselves and their country into catastrophe.

America followed suit of the Europeans who also, in rebellion against the Lord God forsook the faith of their fathers and sold their countries into the hands of foreigners. The lawlessness of the people both in America and the European continent could not stop the deluge of foreign faith and young warriors and there came a time when the takeover was completed. Politicians in Washington and liberal organizations, along with major Christian denominations took the lead in filling America with another people who followed another god. The epitaph was written and the final portion was completed. When the generations that followed grew up, there was a final realization that the America which did exist and the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; even our Father who had given us his Son to die on the cross was no more welcomed in the USA, the nation stagnated into a whole other place.

Just as Israel lost her inheritance, so too Americans lost theirs due to the weight of the sins of the people. Further the historical nature of the founding of America and the faith of Jesus Christ became an enemy. Those who knew the truth were persecuted and sought out. This created the war within America. The fall of the great nation was completed within a few short years. The borders no longer sealed nor anyone trying to keep the nation safe, the lands of America became a stage for the battle to destroy the Christian god and those who followed him. There was no hope, although Christians believed God would save them, the sins and the weight of the judgment had been given. The Lord God had given the land he once blessed into the hands of the enemy and the justice was heavy and completed.

Churches stood empty, burned down, and hallow. No sounds from their depths could be heard; however the ringing of the cries of the Muslim call to prayer filled the streets. For this became the first generation in America to truly celebrate another god and the loss of a nation that Islam had considered an enemy.

Ecc 8:12-13

(12) Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

(13) But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

It will be remembered that we were warned. It will be remembered that some fought this tooth and nail. But a spoiled and rebellious people would not listen. They were occupied with their smartphones, computers, technical devices, and on social sites. They were occupied in their sins, as entire generations of Americans turned over to pleasure. They turned that which God had given them into sensual pleasures where the creature was worshipped over the creator. As Paul warned of the generation's debaucheries in his day, the very words he wrote described the fall of this nation and the loss of everything that God had done for this nation.

Thousands lost their lives, cities became destroyed, because in the takeover great battles were fought and won. But nothing could hold the country together for the one who had blessed the nation had called for its end. In the end, it became true; all the 'wicked and the nations who forget God are turned into hell'!

Christians were targeted as were others. Long lines of American Christians from every walk of life, every race, and all denominations were sought out in America by those who fostered the notion that the country they had gained entry into was theirs. There was no mercy, no love, and no escape. The multitudes of believers in America, who thought they would be raptured out, be safe, and that god would not judge America found out that they were wrong. But by the time they found out this, it was too late.

1Pe 4:17-19

(17) For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

(18) And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

(19) Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

They were shot, hanged, raped, murdered, and beheaded in mass until no place was left on the American shores that did not turn blood red from the carnage. What the enemy could not destroy personally, with the help of allies who hated America; bombs destroyed the cities of power. There was nothing left, nothing that revealed the America that was before. No Christian faith, no blessing, no land, and no freedom! Only death remained in the land of the free.

I warned them, others warned them, and for decades the Lord had sent messengers to warn America to turn away from their sins. But they did not heed the warning, nor repent of their sins and turn from their wicked ways.

It became apparent that those running our big cities, those in control of Washington, and those who had plotted to bring down the nation had all worked to destroy the country. As the children of Israel sat by the river near Babylon and wept over their bondage and loss of Israel, so too; a remnant of Americans wept over their loss and the destruction of all they had held dear. Howbeit, America could not save Americans; because the Americans forsook the only one who could save them. That one was Jesus Christ, Lord of Lords and King of Kings.

2Pe 2:6-10

(6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

(7) And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

(8) (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

(9) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

(10) But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

The Psalms of the Watchman Dana G Smith are below. These are just a couple I share with you in regards to this article. I have written many such Psalms, few have ever been published. I have rarely shared these, and in fact I wrote these many, many years ago.

A Deliverer Comes

A Psalm

by the Watchman Dana G Smith

Out of the Land of Promise

A Deliverer comes.

O' Zion, raise up thy voice.

O' Gates be opened wide.

For The Lord comes.

Strong, mighty in battle

Yeshua is His name.

He is the Messiah.

Ruling by iron force.

Ruling by the Word of the Lord.

Awaken, rise from slumber.

O' Israel, hear the trumpets.

For your Deliverer has come.

Look and Sing.

Raise the voice in triumph.

For He is come.

The Lord, God of Glory and Triumph.

Yea, He is come.

His reward is with Him.
Light breaketh into darkness.
Truth is revealed.
Godlessness will end.
The reign of our God,
In holiness, righteousness, and truth,
Yea, this begins.

Rejoice O' people.
Rejoice O' heavens.
Lift up the banners.
For the King of Glory is come.
Praise ye the Lord.

The Land of Shadows

A Psalm

by The Watchman Dana G Smith

In the Land of Shadows, cries can be heard.
Before there was gladness, now there is unbelief & terror.
The voice of the wise man has ceased,
For the Lord of HOSTS has spoken.
Across the land it can be heard.

A voice that was not heard before,
a voice the people gave no heed,
For the wrath of the Lord has descended
And we have heard it.
We are a people gone astray,
Like Israel of old,
We are people undone,
For the Lord has recompensed us for our pride.

Where are your wise men?
Where are your noble ones?
Who has the power to quench my fury saith the Lord?
Run to your places and hide.
Bury yourselves in your castles.
Yea, I will crush you under the weight of your idols!
For the Lord has removed himself,
He has descended in anger for the pride,
Yea for the pride of his people and the arrogance of the nations.
The shadow has passed, yea it has gone,
Swiftly from north to south, from coast to coast,
From cities to the farms, yea it is consumed.

My day groaneth the people,

Where is my day of peace?

Gone saith the Lord.

My day groaneth the people,

Where is my day of prosperity?

Gone saith the Lord.

My day groaneth the people,

How shall it end?

Thy day is ended saith the Lord,

For the day is mine, it is filled,

Yea the Lord doth speak and

The day is filled with my righteous fury.

For thy arrogance,

Thy pride,

Thy iniquity,

Thy idols,

Thy madness and pleasure seeking ways.

It is full saith the Lord,

it is full.

How long shall it last?

Till it be consumed and my anger is ended saith the Lord.

The word is passing through the nations.

Have you heard?

Have you seen the smoke?
Behold it is gone!
How shall it continue?
Where is the wisdom?
Who will tell me?
How could I have avoided this?
Did you not know?
Did no one tell you this could be?
Away with thee,
Count the dross and cast it away.
Wipe the slate.
Mount that, which you have,
Flee, run, and see if you can escape.
For it is filth in the land of shadows.
Under every rock,
In every house,
In all the temples of thy idols,
In every street,
The land is filled with evil.
Thy ways are wicked and you love it so!

You hide in the shadows of your lands.
You have hidden your sins well,
But I will cast light in the shadows.

I will reveal the hidden things.

I will burn the wicked thing.

I will remove it.

For I am the Lord and my anger will not cease,

Yea, till it is quenched in my righteousness.

For the filth will be removed of it,

The cities will burn,

The people will be destroyed,

For the end has come,

In the Land of Shadows.

Epitaph:

The smoke rises, the vulture circles,

The birds flee, and the neighborhood is silent,

In the Land of Shadows, a great and terrible day has come,

We were not ready, no one told us of this day.

For we were the elite of the earth, the most powerful of our day,

We live in the Land of Shadows, a place where the dust has not settled,

Nor the peace returned, for evil has come, In the Land of Shadows.

Isa 47:7-15

(7) And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

(8) Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

(9) But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

(10) For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

(11) Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

(12) Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

(13) Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

(14) Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

(15) Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.
